

from ye myddys of September unto ye myddys of December is opyn tyme of plantyng and yet from ye myddys of January unto ye myddys of March is opyn tyme if gode wylle to chese when ye wyll if any wyll as up dayer cke lesse plene luns / xxi. xxii. xxiii. xxiiii. xxv. dages after ye somerday it is if gode to graffe in or in dayer lesse ye change ye for plantyng of al man thyng ye day of ye change / ye seconde and ye iii^{te} ben ye best dages

Dintte a potke of widd in ye erth in a longe wutte lyke a fozel, and lette hir growe, ym a longe m^r make holr endelonge, in whar dyffyr put smale byrre, as a clew of a milbery tree, ende in wyse of wiggys at plantynge ende to fonde wutte in ye dyffyr, in soe hole as the fist wutte erth, and hyde ye fothre wel w^t and noon ower tree shal verythe yat it planted in this wyse // after ye first yere or ye seconde yere fallu allyke ye braynch with a sharpe salve and transplante him in apte places // make a bare place ye quantte of w^t kynge brede in a fand bolle of apertee or perteree, chage bet and hit fast with moss as ye doo in graftynge, and so lette it growe al ye yere and yere wol ryse a greet and ye nept yere ye may unbrayde it, and set it wher ye wil chuse, and thus may ye have a garden in tyme // of goodnesse of a gode stoffe

Take longe vnder dounle and sette him in a myssy gronde and in a myssy gronde by there the .ij. say many dayes and than a none vpon a ychelmasse cleve ye of ether ende and put ye vnder dounle in ye next yer than fawde of eny knotte and in tyme of felyng sette him a grafte and so let it be ye may have a fygge gardene without cote that wol becom ye second oz ye .ij. yer fawmlyng Sloping also of trees sette in tyme of yer wol best fowne but it wol becom ye .ij. yer fawmlyng

Take ye hande peppyns of roses yat ben ripe, and solwe him in ye erth in ffenrel oz in marche / id. whan yey springe delwe him wel with water, and after a yere complete y^e mayste fufstante by delwe a boote ye roses y^e space of an hunde brede oz .ij. and ayooste her synges with wasme wa-so mayste y^e haue roses tynchy.

Hynde Onyon fide oz lebe seed in a softe lymmen clowte, wete him wel and putte in y^e earth mo. in fong depe, so shal thay wege greet, Graffe on an holme tree a graffe of an Oke, and it shal be grene wynt^r and sament